

The Department of Psychology is pleased to share with you a very encouraging results of the Research Assessment Exercise (RAE) 2020 that out of five comparable units of assessment Psychology, we ranks No. 1 in terms of the percentage judged to meet the standard of 4* “world leading”, the highest starred level for overall quality profile of research. Our research environment was also assessed as conducive to world leading (4*) research and an impact case was judged as "world leading"(4*). Details of the RAE 2020 results can be found here.

We will continue to strive for excellence in its research endeavours in the coming years, and work for the creation of new knowledge that benefits human well-being.