

What do Psychology Graduates Do?

Lots of things!!!

- Psychology graduates are equipped with both technical and soft skills that different industries are looking for.
- They could go for a diverse type of jobs and industries in both private and public sectors as well as education institutions.