

The University of Hong Kong
Department of Psychology
An Overview of Independent Study in Psychology (PSYC4007)
(For students admitted in 2022/23, 2023/24 & 2024/25)

(For psychology major) Students will each conduct an independent empirical research project. Regular attendance for research supervision is required. The project write-up should be about 8,000 to 10,000 words (exclusive of tables, bibliographies and appendices) and should follow the practice of communication in top psychology journals. Approval by Department Head is required for admissions into this course. Assessment: 100% coursework.

Prerequisites: PSYC1001 and PSYC1004 and PSYC2060.

Objective

The course aims at preparing students to plan, conduct an independent empirical research project in Psychology. A thesis writing or an independent research project is usually required by postgraduate programme(s).

Supervision

You will do an individual research project under the supervision of an advanced research postgraduate student or a demonstrator.

The Project

This will be a good learning opportunity to aim at writing up a high standard and a publishable article. Your project should be written like a journal article including:

- Title Page
- Table of Contents
- Abstract
- Acknowledgement (if needed)
- Introduction
- Methodology
- Results
- Discussion
- Conclusion
- Reference

The grading criteria will be based on:

- | | |
|---|-----|
| ● Knowledge of the research topic | 10% |
| ● Critical analysis | 20% |
| ● Potential contribution and significance | 10% |
| ● Design of study | 20% |
| ● Data analysis and presentation | 20% |
| ● Writing and organization | 20% |

Eligibility

A student needs to have an average GPA of 3.00 or above in advanced psychology courses (except PSYC2072, PSYC2073, PSYC2075 and PSYC2112) taken in HKU by the end of the 3rd year in the 4-year curriculum. Eligible students will be invited by the department at the beginning of July.

Application

A student, who wants to take this course in the final year, will need to submit an online Research Area Ranking Form before the end of enrollment period in mid-August. Please rank the order of research areas to indicate your preferences for supervisor assignment on the form. The results of supervisor assignment will be announced before the end of add/drop period in September. Late application will not be considered.

If you will participate in an exchange programme and want to take PSYC4007 in the same year, you have to seek prior approval by completing a Special Approval Application form for the special arrangement before the end of enrollment period in mid-August. Late application will not be considered.

Presentation of Research Project Proposal

Around the end of November or early December, each student has to present his/her research project proposal to a small group of fellow students and one member of the departmental teaching staff. Each presentation and discussion will last about 20 minutes. This offers each student an opportunity to get more input before finalizing the research design for data collection.

Ethics Application

All undergraduate research is required to undergo ethics review by the Departmental Research Ethics Committee. Applications should be submitted on or before two weeks after the research proposal presentation.

Students on overseas exchange and have applied to start doing their project in the 2nd semester, have to submit their application on or before 1st March.

Failure to submit an ethics application will lead to a failure in the course. Please read the Overview of Ethics Application for more details.

Submission of IS report

1. Please submit your IS report to Moodle before the deadline.
 - a) Please submit as one single file in PDF format including all the chapters.
 - b) All covering pages, pictures, tables and charts must be included in appropriate position of the file.
 - c) There is no need to submit SPSS, Excel or other files separately.
2. The deadline of submission is 23:59, 15th April.
3. The penalty for late submission is 2 marks for each calendar day, including Saturday, Sunday and public holidays providing that the student has informed his/her supervisor(s) regarding the late submission of thesis report at least 24 hours prior to the original submission deadline. If the student fails to inform his/her supervisor(s) about the late submission 24 hours prior to the original deadline but submits the thesis after the deadline, the late submission will result in an “F” grade.
4. Requests for deadline extension will not be permitted, except for medical reasons or other extenuating circumstances, students should submit a formal application for an extension of the thesis report submission deadline, with strong justifications supplemented by supporting document(s), to the supervisor(s) and the Chief Examiner for consideration and approval.
