Overseas Training in Australia: Acceptance and Commitment Therapy, Dialectical Behavioural Therapy and Child Assessment

Ms. Tsz Wai Tasha AU YEUNG

MSocSc (Clinical Psychology) graduates
Department of Psychology
The University of Hong Kong

Abstract

With the generous support of the Thanksgiving Scholarship donated by Dr. S. Y. Tang, MSocSc(CP) trainee Tasha was able to complete her overseas training in Australia, both in Sydney and Melbourne, to continue her learning of clinical knowledge and skills. She attended an Acceptance and Commitment Therapy course ran by Dr. Russ Harris, a Dialectical Behavioural Therapy course, and a workshop on differential assessment for children with ASD, ADHD, or trauma. In this seminar, Tasha is delighted to share her valuable learning experiences and insights gained from these training opportunities.

Overseas Training in the United States: Attachment in the SPLAT Lab in University of Michigan

Ms. Ho Ying CHEUNG

Department of Psychology
The University of Hong Kong

Abstract

With the support of the Thanksgiving Scholarship donated by Dr. S. Y. Tang, clinical psychology trainee Christy participated in a 10-day overseas observership at the SPLAT Lab, University of Michigan in January 2024. In this seminar, Christy is delighted to share her precious learning experience and insights gained from this overseas training observership. In particular, Christy had the opportunities to shadow the work of Professor Craig Rodriguez-Seijas. This attachment allowed her to learn more about the latest development in clinical science research on psychopathology and stigmatization in the United States.
